Message From The Nominating Committee

According to scripture, those who hold the office of Ruling Elder or Deacon should be mature believers, led by the Holy Spirit, who exhibit a manner of life that conforms to the biblical description (1 Timothy 3-10) of an officer in Christ's church.

Descriptions and information on our elected officers and positions are listed on a gold bulletin insert which you can find in the narthex.

WSC Q. 41. Wherein is the moral law summarily comprehended?

A. The moral law is summarily comprehended in the Ten Commandments.

The Ten Commandments were once well known, taught, and respected by most people in our culture. Now they are a source of controversy if people are aware of them at all. This is a shame, for these foundational laws provide a summary of what it means to live a life in a way that honors God. We don’t get to heaven by being good people, but those who are followers of Christ should seek to honor God with all of their life. The Ten Commandments provide a distillation of the central ingredients of a life oriented toward that end.
