Message From The Nominating Committee

According to scripture, those who hold the office of Ruling Elder or Deacon should be mature believers, led by the Holy Spirit, who exhibit a manner of life that conforms to the biblical description (1 Timothy 3-10) of an officer in Christ's church.

Descriptions and information on our elected officers and positions are listed on a gold bulletin insert which you can find in the narthex.

Welcome to Mt. Pleasant!

We are glad that you have chosen to join with us in worship today.

If you are visiting for the first time, or have visited before but would like more information about our church, please fill out a blue visitor card (located in the back of the pews) and indicate how we may serve you.

If you need assistance at any time during the service, please notify an usher who will be happy to help.

If you desire special prayer or spiritual counsel, please meet with our Elders in the front of the sanctuary immediately following the service.

Assisted Listening Devices to aid those with hearing deficiencies are available in the Sound Booth at the rear of the Sanctuary. Please see one of our staff in the booth prior to the Call to Worship to get set up.

WSC Q. 44. What doth the preface to the ten commandments teach us?

A. The preface to the ten commandments teacheth us, that because God is the Lord, and our God, and Redeemer, therefore we are bound to keep all his commandments.

The statement "I am the Lord thy God" is a declaration of God's authority. We have an allergy to authority in our culture. We don't like people telling us what to do. We had better get over that where God is concerned! If anyone has the legitimate authority to issue commands, it is "the Lord thy God"! We sometimes want to buck the authority of the Almighty, it is the definition of sin that we do exactly this. All the more reason to give careful ear to the Ten Commandments. It serves to remind us who is really in charge.
