Let us pray...

Almighty God, in Jesus Christ you taught us to pray
and to offer our petitions to you in his name.
Guide us by your Holy Spirit, that our prayers for others may serve your will and show your steadfast love,
through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

Catechism Corner

WSC Q. 79. Which is the tenth commandment?

A. The tenth commandment is, Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his manservant, nor his maidservant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbor's.

The tenth commandment is different from the other nine. It is the one commandment that makes it clear that God is concerned both with our outward behavior and also with the attitude of our hearts. We can covet without anyone else being aware of that sin – anyone except God! But he cares about what no one else sees. He wants us to be pure and holy in heart, and he's determined to make us so through the work of his Holy Spirit.
