Let us pray...

Almighty God, in Jesus Christ you taught us to pray and to offer our petitions to you in his name.

Guide us by your Holy Spirit, that our prayers for others may serve your will and show your steadfast love, through the same Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Amen.

Catechism Corner

WSC Q. 80. What is required in the tenth commandment?

A. The tenth commandment requireth full contentment with our own condition, with a right and charitable frame of spirit toward our neighbor, and all that is his.

The tenth commandment forbids us to covet. But how can we do this? What is the antidote to covetousness? The catechism says the way to not be covetous is to have “full contentment with our own condition.” If we learn (as Paul describes in Philippians) to be “content in any and every circumstance” we will be so busy thanking God for what we do have, that we won’t have time or energy to covet what we don’t have.
